MONDAY EVEN'G., FEBRUARY 10.

About Wemen. "The evil that men do lives after them"but how about the evil that women do?

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague is said to be mere beautiful than ever. A Pennsylvania girl waited a whole year bcfor a bringing a suit for damages against a man who had kissed her without warning, and the orushing verdict of one cent damages took her breath away.

Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines has won another suit at New Orleans, which gives her possession of a large tract of land on the Mississippi river, in Ascension parish, La.

The first female clerks ever employed in the national treasury were appointed by Sceretary Chase in 1862, and now there are more than 1,300 women employed in the departments at Every girl who passes through the Boston schools now receives three years' instruction in various kinds of needlowork, and is espable of being an expert seamstress.

Prince Metternich, lately Austrian Ambasia dor in Paris, occo made a clever little speech to the lady who was the best dressed grande dame of the Second Empire, "I notice," said His Excellency, "that your bonnets grow smaller and smaller, and the bills larger and larger. One of these days the maker will bring nothing but the bills."

The late Princess Alies was a woman of fine mind, and of much literary taste. She was so far free from prejudice that, in spite of her serious religious feelings, she had a hearty friendship for David Frederic Strauss, the Logaof his best works the "Life of Voltaire," con sists of lectures which be read before the Princess and ber court.

The Gazette aims to be a journal of high clatacter-early in the receipt of news and prompt in giving to its readers the latest advices, foreign measures and public men; but to trench on the sacred privacy of no man's hearthstone. It expects to render faithful service to the city the state and the country by a candid criticism of the Commonwealth of Virginia. With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the expanity of the

The news of the National Capital will be carefully looked after. The year 1879 will see th control of both branches of Congress returned to the Democratic Conservative party, and this section of the country, so usjustly dealt with for many years, may look to see fairer measures inaugurated. Since the seat of the Federal government was established in Washington the Gazette has never been without a full representation in the corps of correspondents there, and especial pains will be taken this year that everything of interest, especially such matters as have a special reference to Virginia, shall be promptly and fully reported. The proceedings of the Legislative, Executive or Judicial Department, of the Government will find their earliest record
